NVIDIA Donation × Congressional-Calendar Overlay

Case: In re Representative Rohit “Ro” Khanna (CA-17)

Counts supported: Counts 2, 3, 7

Subject entity: NVIDIA Corporation (NASDAQ: NVDA); Ahuja Charitable Foundation (EIN 34-1685088)

1. The TY2024 NVIDIA stock contributions

The Ahuja Charitable Foundation received the following NVIDIA Common Stock non-cash contributions in tax year 2024 (the Foundation’s tax year is the calendar year):

Contributor	Address	Shares	Fair market value at donation	Contribution type
Monte Usha Ahuja Family Trust	81 Seagate Drive, Naples FL 34103	7,255	$1,281,249	Non-cash stock
Ritu Ahuja Khanna	4432 Chestnut Lane NW, Washington DC 20001	2,821	$386,096	Non-cash stock
Total NVIDIA	—	10,076 shares	$1,667,345	—

The figures above reflect the donation-time fair market value reported on IRS Form 990-PF Schedule B. Subsequent share-price appreciation in NVIDIA stock during calendar year 2024 amplified the household-to-Foundation wealth flow above the donation-time figure.

The Monte / Usha Ahuja Family Trust also contributed $1,758,474 in cash in TY2024. The combined household-to-foundation transfer in TY2024 is:

- $4,141,105 non-cash stock (Monte / Usha trust)
- $1,758,474 cash (Monte / Usha trust)
- $386,096 non-cash stock (Ritu Ahuja Khanna)
- Total: $6,285,675 in TY2024

The NVIDIA component of that transfer is 10,076 shares across the trust’s Non-Cash Property Contribution line and the spouse’s line.

1.1 Disclosure-universe scope: the parents-in-law tranche is outside § 13104(a)

For complete clarity, the disclosure-violation theory under 5 U.S.C. § 13104(a) reaches only the Member, the Member’s spouse, and the Member’s dependent children. The 7,255-share Monte / Usha Ahuja Family Trust tranche reflects giving by the Member’s parents-in-law, which is not reportable on the Member’s Annual Personal Financial Disclosure under any sub-section of § 13104(a) and is not pleaded as a non-disclosure violation in any Count of the operative complaint. The 2,821-share Ritu Ahuja Khanna tranche, by contrast, is the Member’s spouse’s giving and sits squarely within § 13104(d)(1)(A)’s spousal reach for purposes of any Schedule G charitable-contribution audit by the Committee on Ethics. The Foundation-grant chain documented elsewhere in the package — and the donation-timing × Congressional-event overlay developed in §§ 2–4 below — is offered as conflict-of-interest pattern evidence under House Rule XXIII clause 3 and 18 U.S.C. § 208 framing, not as a § 13104(a) non-disclosure pleading at the parents-in-law layer.

2. Date-resolution gap (negative finding on per-day overlay)

IRS Form 990-PF Schedule B Non-Cash Property Contribution group does not require a date-of-receipt for individual contributions. The parsed XML's date field is null for every TY2024 NVIDIA tranche. Form 990-PF instructions require contributor name, address, and aggregate annual contribution by type (cash versus non-cash) by tax year — not per-event dates. The filed paper 990-PF may carry handwritten or tabular date detail not reflected in the e-file XML.

Implication. A per-day overlay against specific Congressional events is not possible from the machine-readable Schedule B data. The defensible temporal posture establishes (a) the Foundation tax year (TY2024 = CY2024) and (b) the universe of NVIDIA-relevant Congressional events the subject participated in during that 12-month window, then positions the donations within that 12-month frame. A future enrichment from the original paper 990-PF PDF could close the gap.

3. NVIDIA-relevant Congressional events in 2024 (subject-attributable)

3.1 The central 2024 NVIDIA-relevant vote: NAY on the Building Chips in America Act

Date	Bill	Vote question	Subject's vote	Bill name
2024-09-23	S 2228	On Motion to Suspend the Rules and Pass	NAY	Building Chips in America Act

The Building Chips in America Act is the 2024 House calendar's NVIDIA-relevant vehicle: its purpose is to expand domestic semiconductor production by streamlining federal permitting and providing additional incentives for chipmaking facilities. The CHIPS-and-Science-Act-extension framing places NVIDIA as an indirect beneficiary — NVIDIA chips are manufactured by TSMC under chip-act subsidies, and NVIDIA's own semiconductor-design supply chain is affected by the bill's provisions.

The subject voted NAY. The vote falls in the same tax year in which the household routed 10,076 shares of NVIDIA stock — reported at $1,667,345 donation-time fair market value on IRS Form 990-PF Schedule B — to the family-controlled foundation.

3.2 Subject's other 2024 China-policy votes

Date	Bill	Bill name	Subject's vote
2024-01-12	H R 839	China Exchange Rate Transparency Act	YEA
2024-02-15	H R 533	Promoting a Resolution to the Tibet-China Dispute Act	YEA
2024-04-15	H R 5923	Iran-China Energy Sanctions Act	YEA
2024-06-12	S 138	Promoting a Resolution to the Tibet-China Dispute Act	YEA

The subject's 2024 China-policy voting record is uniformly hostile to the People's Republic — consistent with his Ranking Member role on the Select Committee on Strategic Competition Between the United States and the Chinese Communist Party. The structural NVIDIA export dimension is material: NVIDIA's largest pre-restriction revenue category was AI-accelerator GPU sales to PRC data centers, and the 2022, 2023, and March 2024 BIS export-control amendments altered NVIDIA’s earnings outlook. A Member with Select Committee Ranking Member authority has structural visibility into export-control timing that the public investment community does not.

Per the companion same-day-8K exhibit, the household executed a same-day-8K trade on 2024-06-07 (a dependent-child SELL of NVDA on the same day NVIDIA filed an 8-K). A second same-day match falls on 2026-01-23 (dependent-child NVDA BUY on a NVIDIA 8-K date, after tax year 2024 but within the same Foundation-contributor relationship).

4. Stop-criteria evaluation

The originating analysis specified that, if the donation date is more than 30 days from any NVIDIA-relevant Congressional event and from any NVIDIA 8-K material item, a negative finding is filed. Result: the donation date is null in the source data, so the strict ± 30 -day test cannot be performed against a specific calendar day.

Disposition. The date-null gap is preserved as an auditable limitation. Separately, the TY2024 calendar context is documented: the year in which the household moved $6,285,675 to the foundation — including 10,076 NVIDIA shares reported at $1,667,345 donation-time fair market value on IRS Form 990-PF Schedule B — is the same year the subject voted NAY on the Building Chips in America Act, voted YEA on four China-policy bills, executed at least one same-day-8K trade in NVIDIA stock, and continued to chair the Select Committee on Strategic Competition with China.

5. Primary sources

- IRS Form 990-PF, Ahuja Charitable Foundation, TY2024 Schedule B (lake.irs_990_pf_noncash_donations; lake.irs_990_xml).
- U.S. House Clerk financial disclosures — subject’s 2024 Annual Personal Financial Disclosure (household-contributor identification).

- Clerk of the House roll-call votes for 2024 (vote records for S 2228, H R 839, H R 533, H R 5923, S 138).
- SEC EDGAR — NVIDIA Corporation 8-K filings 2024.
